No. 18 Beacon Street,

Boston, March 8th 1876

My dear Sir

Just returned from Washington. Cannot find anything in Brett's patent that seems to conflict with your style. Shall give your style a fair trial and if satisfactory, shall apply for a Patent in your name.

Have just succeeded in getting my new patent allowed.

Shall send you a copy of specification when forthcoming.

In haste

Yours sincerely

A. Graham Bell
